

ENGLISH

MERSEYSIDE LABOUR MARKET

Arguably the most 'attractive' of subjects for employers, English opens up opportunities in all sectors and industries across all towns, cities and countries. Students who study English at university mainly go into careers in Marketing, PR or Education but the options are endless! The skills you gain from studying English are marketable in most career areas, they can transfer into a number of occupational sectors such as education, business, professional services, creative, digital and many more.

LABOUR MARKET

28,362

People approx. are employed in careers that make use of English across Merseyside

3,184 Business and related research professionals

20,954 Education

2,481 Legal professionals, associates and executives

1,743 Writers, authors and journalists

OTHER SECTORS

Creative and digital industries
Education and training
Performing arts
Financial and insurance