Introduction

The purpose of this policy and procedures is to set out our school's commitment to fair, safe and effective recruitment and selection of new and existing employees.

Our school is an equal opportunities employer and will not discriminate unlawfully against anyone, but will select the best person for the job in terms of qualifications and abilities.

We are committed to safer recruitment practices that:

- deter prospective applicants who are unsuitable to work with children or young people
- identify and reject applicants who are unsuitable to work with children or young people
- prevent and deter inappropriate behaviours by providing on-going supervision, training and support to all staff and volunteers

Guiding Principles

- All recruitment and selection procedures must comply with all current legislation and specifically the guidance set out in Part 3 of Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE 2022)
- A job description and person specification must accompany each vacancy.
- All members of the recruitment panel should be familiar with this policy and the accompanying selection and recruitment procedures.
- At least one person on each appointment panel should have undertaken full Safer Recruitment Training in keeping with the requirements of the Safer Recruitment Consortium and Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE). This should be noted on their personnel file induction checklist. Refreshing this training at regular intervals and following significant changes in statutory guidance should support practice to remain effective.
- The school's Safer Recruitment Procedures set out further guidance for appointments of those working with children. For example:
 - a curriculum vitae will not be accepted in lieu of an application form
 - shortlisted applicants will be required to declare any cautions and convictions, etc. that are not protected [amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 and 2020)] prior to interview
 - references will be sought on all shortlisted candidates and scrutinised before interview
 - open references will not be relied upon and will be subject to confirmation from the referee
 - all references must include a statement about someone's suitability to work with children
- Equality monitoring is at the heart of our equal opportunities policy. Monitoring information in relation to job applicants will be to assist us in equality monitoring. The recruitment panel will not have access to job applicant's monitoring information.
- All suitably qualified disabled applicants who meet the essential requirements of a post will be invited for interview where practical. Appropriate adjustments will be made to the interview arrangements where necessary.
- Every applicant must be assessed consistently against the criteria identified on the person specification. The selection panel must look for relevant objective evidence on which to make a decision.
- Questions asked of applicants must relate to the requirements of the post and should not be discriminatory, offensive or in any way off-putting to any person or group.

- Safer Recruitment training provides further guidance as to how to ask further questions to test out someone's suitability to work with children and relevant to their application form and personal statement.
- The Equality Act 2010 (Section 60) prevents employers from asking applicants about their health or attendance before making an offer of appointment. Questions relating to the applicant's health or sickness absence history must not be asked at the interview stage. Only appropriate information should be sought to enable the candidate to participate in the interview process.
- At the end of the interviews, each panel member should have recorded evidence of how each candidate has met each of the selection criteria. Systematic analysis and assessment against the school's scoring system is important so that fair and justified decisions are made and so that constructive feedback can be given to candidates.
- The panel should then reach agreement on which candidate is to be appointed.
- Short summative verbal feedback should be offered to unsuccessful shortlisted candidates.
- All posts are subject to a fully completed application form, satisfactory employment references, medical clearance, evidence of the applicant's right to work in the UK and evidence of the required qualifications and any further relevant pre-employment checks set out in Keeping Children Safe in Education, including an Enhanced DBS check, a Barred List check for those working in Regulated Activity, a prohibition check for those in teaching positions, overseas criminal checks including overseas teacher sanctions, etc.
- The verbal offer of employment and the initial offer letter must be conditional on all the required checks being completed. Candidates should be advised not to resign until their post is confirmed and all relevant checks must have been completed.
- The school will keep a record of the pre-employment checks carried out on the successful candidate and these will be included within the school's Single Central Record. Evidence of the checks undertaken (where appropriate to do so) will be kept in the individual's personnel file.
- The school's safer recruitment procedures will be quality assured following each round of appointments by the Headteacher. This will include scrutiny of the school's Single Central Record and personnel files.
- All new employees will receive a mandatory safeguarding induction in keeping with the DfE guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education and evidence of this will be retained in the individual's personnel file.
- Any complaints made in relation to the recruitment and selection process should be dealt with under the grievance procedures for internal candidates and school's complaints policy for external applicants.
- When asked to provide a reference for a current or former employee, we will ensure that the information provided confirms whether we are satisfied with the applicant's suitability to work with children, and provide the facts (not opinions) of any substantiated safeguarding concerns/allegations that meet the harm threshold. We will not include information about concerns/allegations which are unsubstantiated, unfounded, false, or malicious. As references are an important part of the recruitment process, they will be provided in a timely manner.

Identification checking guidelines can be found on the GOV.UK website; • Obtain (via the applicant) an enhanced DBS certificate (including barred list information, for those who will be engaging in regulated activity). Paragraphs 248 - 251 gives further guidance when using the DBS update service as the original certificate will need to be obtained by school; • Obtain a separate barred list check if an individual will start work in regulated activity before the DBS certificate is available. Paragraph 260 details how to obtain a separate barred list check. Separate barred lists checks do not apply to

	16-19 Academies, Special Post-16 institutions and Independent Training Providers; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verify the candidate’s mental and physical fitness to carry out their work responsibilities. A job applicant can be asked relevant questions about disability and health in order to establish whether they have the physical and mental capacity for the specific role; • Conduct checks on every person’s right to work in the UK, including EU nationals, other overseas nationals and British citizens. Employers should not discriminate when conducting these rights to work checks. If there is uncertainty about whether an individual needs permission to work in the UK, then prospective employers should follow advice on the GOV.UK website; • If the person has lived or worked outside the UK, make any further checks the school or college consider appropriate (see paragraphs 262–267 279 - 284 of Keeping Children Safe in Education). ‘Individuals who have lived or worked outside the UK must undergo the same checks as all other staff (set out in paragraph 231)... ..In addition, schools and colleges must make any further checks they think appropriate so that any relevant events that occurred outside the UK can be considered’ • Where the individual has taught outside of the UK, confirm that there are no sanctions against them by obtaining a letter (via the applicant) from the professional regulating authority in the country (or countries) in which the individual has worked confirming that they have not imposed any sanctions or restrictions, or that they are aware of any reason why they may be unsuitable to teach. Advice regarding regulatory or professional bodies is available from the National Recognition Information Centre for the United Kingdom. Applicants can find contact details of regulatory bodies in the EU/EEA and Switzerland on the Regulated Professions database. Applicants can also contact the UK Centre for Professional Qualifications who will signpost them to the appropriate EEA regulatory body. • Ensure all appropriate checks are made when recruiting people from outside the UK • Verify professional qualifications, as appropriate. The Teaching Regulation Agency’s Employer Access Service system should be used to verify the award of qualified teacher status (QTS), and the completion of teacher induction or probation; • Confirm that the individual (if employed to carry out teaching work) is not prohibited from teaching by the Secretary of State (paragraph 252), or any sanction or restriction imposed (that remains current) by the GTCE (paragraph 254) before its abolition in March 2012; • Independent schools, including academies and free schools, check that a person taking up a management position as described at paragraph 255 is not subject to a Section 128 direction made by the Secretary of State Paragraph 256 describes that ‘There is no exhaustive list of roles that might be regarded as ‘management’ for the purpose of determining what constitutes management in an independent school. The Department’s view is that roles involving, or very likely to involve, management of a school include (but are not limited to) headteachers, principals, deputy/assistant headteachers, governors and trustees. It is important to note that the individual’s job title is not the determining factor and whether other individuals such as teachers with additional responsibilities could be considered to be ‘taking part in management’

	depends on the facts of the case. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Section 128 checks should also be made on all governors in maintained schools as the DfE state ‘A person subject to a section 128 direction is also disqualified from holding or continuing to hold office as a governor of a maintained school.’ • Paragraphs 260 and 261 of KCSIE set out how ‘Schools and colleges can use the TRA’s Employer Access service to make prohibition, direction, restriction and children’s barred list checks. The service is free to use and is available via the TRA’s web page. Users will require a DfE Sign-in account to log onto the service.’ The Childcare Act 2006 sets out that where applicable, a disqualification check may be required to ensure the individual is not disqualified under the Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2018. 20.	Once undertaken, the date on which all pre-employment checks were completed should be recorded on the school’s Single Central Record of pre-employment checks and evidence of the checks (where appropriate) will be retained on the individual’s personnel file. The school will complete School Improvement Liverpool’s Personnel File Checklist to ensure all documents and checks are evidenced within the file. In order to comply with the DBS Code of Practice copies of DBS certificates will not be retained except in exceptional circumstances. Where a copy is retained, school will note on the personnel file the rationale for keeping a copy and make arrangements to securely dispose of the certificate after 6 months.

The safeguarding induction checklist should be completed and placed on their personnel file.
